Visionary Leader
Revolutionizing AI-Based Trading

Armen Sargasyan

Armen Sargasyan, a seasoned leader, is transforming the landscape of AI-based trading. With a master's degree in management and an MBA specializing in lean management, he earned the prestigious Prince2 6th edition certificate. Armen's career trajectory, from FMCG regional manager (2011-2015) to Executive Director at IBM Armenia (2015-2018), reflects a strategic mindset honed over the years.

As Chief Listing Manager at Bitmart (2018-2019), he foresaw the cryptocurrency market's potential, laying the foundation for TLC Trading.ai. Founding the Market Making team (2019-2022), Armen showcased his ability to drive impactful change on a national scale.

His continuous pursuit of knowledge, demonstrated by a recent AI course, ensures the company stays at the forefront of technological advancements. As CEO, Armen, alongside experts spearheads global expansion, making TLC Trading.ai a compelling investment in the future of AI-driven trading.

RISK MANAGEMENT

Central to the company's triumphant trading strategy is the meticulous application of risk management.

STRATEGY

Each transaction never jeopardizes more than 2-5% of the company's capital, employing minimal leverage to maintain a delicate balance and mitigate potential losses. All are part of the company's strategy.

SECURITY

This prudent approach ensures the company's long-term financial stability and instills unwavering trust in its technology, and security of their funds.

OUR MISSION

TLC Trading.ai confidently embraces the future, ready to take on new challenges and maintain its leadership position in the competitive cryptocurrency trading market

trading results

Protection

PAST PERFORMANCE

Over the past two years, TLC Trading.ai has consistently achieved awe-inspiring monthly profits ranging from 20% to an astounding 80%.

These remarkable achievements have solidified the company's position in the market and garnered significant interest from new customers throughout the world.

A standout triumph for the company has been the mastery of cryptocurrency arbitrage, capitalizing on momentary price differences across various exchanges to generate swift profits.

This precision-based strategy has proven to be exceptionally fruitful over a relatively short time frame and isn't limited to just one coin.

PAST PERFORMANCE

TLC Trading.ai has established itself as a prominent player in the futures market, deploying diverse strategies tailored to prevailing market conditions.

Their skillset extends to both bullish and bearish trends, ensuring profitability regardless of market conditions.

In addition to their impressive track record, TLC Trading.ai has earned accolades for their expertise in scalping, expertly leveraging short-term price movements in the spot market.

This demanding strategy demands swift reflexes and precise decision-making, a challenge easily met by our traders, due to their seasoned skills and vast experience.
